

THE PICTURE

BOOK

PHILIP J. COZANS, PUBLISHER, 107 Nassau Street, New York.

This is a Picture of old Mr. Blue-beard, who had a great many wives, and killed them all when he got tired of them. He had a fine house, and this is

His Dog,

his Cat,

and his monkey.

Here is a little Boy, and the girl is his sister

—the Boy is sailing his Boat, and the Girl is playing with her Doll. They are going to have from their Aunt a new

The word "BOOK" is written in large, bold, serif capital letters. A peacock is perched on the letter 'O', its tail feathers fanning out. The letters are surrounded by decorative floral and scrollwork elements.
